

HOW TO GET MORE CASH?

Matt Catling is one of Australia's top Master Coaches and presenters who has worked with tens of thousands of people to improve not only their financial wealth, but their health and relationships as well. He is a witty character presenting useful information, which could make for a colourful segment on your breakfast show. Matt is able to coach a listener on the air, and is available to speak on any of the topics below:

BECOME A MONEY MAGNET - Five Steps to Creating More Cash

Matt will talk about the sure fire strategies used to make, save and attract more money into your life. "After a 20min conversation with Matt, my sales went from $37k p/mth to 137k per/mth," L. Forrest, Sydney.

THINK RICH – Build Confidence Around Your Finances

With job losses, falling share prices and a slump in the housing market, the state of the economy has many Australians on edge. Matt can discuss how to create financial certainty in these uncertain times.

RETIRE RICH – Set Up Your Financial Fortress

With 97% of Australians retiring on less than 13,000 per year, it's no wonder people are working for longer. Matt will share the secrets to creating the wealth you need to retire in comfort.

RELATIONSHIP RESCUE – Find Your Perfect Partner.

Wealth is about more than simply finances. How rich are your relationships? Matt can give you pointers on not only fixing your current relationships but attracting that special someone into your life.

SLIM DOWN – Lose Weight and Keep It Off

Diet plans and gym memberships obviously aren't working, given that Australia is now the most obese country in the world. Matt will discuss the missing ingredient in weight loss and what stops people achieving their goal weight.

FREE OFFER FOR LISTENERS: All listeners will be invited along to the one-day 'Think Rich' seminar run by Matt's new company Your Future Now, for free. The program is worth $200 and helps people release negative habits and limiting beliefs in order for them to achieve success in all areas of their lives. It equips them with the tools they need to make lasting changes and create certainty about their future.
